Reading Comprehension for Kindy Kids

Nice stories, easy to read, with thought-provoking questions.

Written by Ron Shaw

The activities in this book address many outcomes in the syllabus.
Intelligent Australia Productions is committed to raising standards in Literacy and Numeracy in Australian schools.
Teacher’s Notes

These reading comprehension tasks are centred around topics of interest to children in the 4-6 year age group.

Some of the stories are short (‘Anna’s New Bike’ has 40 words) while others are much longer (‘The Ram and the Rainbow’ has 157 words).

The passages are graded (in levels) according to how students are required to answer the questions and there are 10 stories for each level.

- Level 1 *: ring the best answer or write the missing word on the letter spaces
- Level 2 : write the missing word on the line
- Level 3 : write the answer as a full sentence

How to Present the Passages in this Book

There is no single ‘correct’ way to treat these comprehension exercises. Every class has students with a range of reading abilities and these passages are intended to accommodate that range.

There is nothing to say that the whole class need work on the same passage concurrently. The teacher may choose to give the more able readers ‘The Ram and the Rainbow’, intermediate readers could work on ‘The Sun and the Moon’ while ‘Anna’s Pup’ could be given to those whose reading levels are not so advanced.

Alternatively, the teacher may choose to read a whole story to her class.
If, say, ‘The Apple and the Banana’ was chosen, the lesson might go like this:
   1. Teacher reads story to class
   2. Teacher selects children to read story out aloud, one child reading one sentence at a time. All the boys in the class could read the Apple’s talking parts while all the girls could ‘be’ the Banana.
   3. Students write their answers on the page.

Home Study

These comprehension tasks are also ideal for home study.
Children may read out aloud to their parents, roles could be reversed, or both. Competent readers will enjoy the satisfaction of completing the sheets with independence. Those requiring assistance with some of the words and/or the questions will benefit from having a parent alongside for help and guidance.

The Ram and the Rainbow

One day a ram was eating grass, next to a fence on the side of a hill.

It began to rain, just a few drops, and the ram kept on eating.

The rain came harder and the ram was getting very wet. Still he kept eating the grass.

Then the ram saw something in the sky. It was a rainbow. He saw that it had seven colours...red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. It was the most beautiful thing he had ever seen.

The ram saw that the rainbow came down onto the ground, not far from where he was eating the grass. He began to walk towards it but then it stopped raining and the rainbow was gone.

The ram turned around and went back to his place on the hillside. He munched away at the grass again.

Every time it rained after that the ram looked to the sky, hoping to see a rainbow.

Question (write the best answer you can think of). How do you know that the ram really liked seeing the rainbow?

Chelsea Rose

Near South Beach there lives a little girl named Chelsea Rose. She is three years old.

Chelsea Rose likes to go to the beach but there is something she likes even more. She likes to do somersaults with her Auntie Jackie.

Whenever Chelsea Rose sees Jackie she says, “Jackie, can we play somersaults?” Jackie always says “Yes” because she likes the game too.

Chelsea Rose bends down forwards and puts her arms between her legs. Jackie then lifts Chelsea Rose up by the hands and Chelsea Rose turns right over.

Do you think Chelsea Rose laughs? Yes she does.
Do you think Jackie laughs? Yes she does.

Do you think this is a true story? Yes it is.

The Little Old Car

Every day at 8 o’clock in the morning a little old car goes past my house.

The little old car is green and the driver is a little old man.

If there are children near the road the driver presses the horn button. “Toot-toot, toot-toot!”

All the boys and girls wave to the man in the little old car and he waves back. He is driving to work.

At 4 o’clock in the afternoon the little old car comes past my house again but this time it goes the other way.

“Toot-toot, toot-toot!”

All the boys and girls wave to the man in the little old car and he waves back. He is driving home from work and will soon be with his family.

A Family of Ducks

There is a family of ducks down at the lake.
There’s a white mother duck and her three yellow ducklings.
There’s also an auntie duck who is brown.

Mother duck says, “Quack-quack.”
Auntie duck says “Quack-quack.”

The little yellow ducklings go “Cheep-cheep, cheep-cheep.”

I saw auntie duck waddle to the water and start to swim.
Mother duck did the same.
Then followed the little ducklings...one-two-three.

The two big ducks and three little ducks swam to the other side of the lake.

Auntie duck waddled onto the land and shook the water off her feathers.
Mother duck did the same.
Then followed the little ducklings...one-two-three.

Tammy’s Pet Tiger

Tammy says she got a pet baby tiger today... a real one!

I haven’t seen Tammy’s tiger but I think it’s a soft toy, not a real tiger.

Tammy says her tiger has blue eyes but only white tigers have blue eyes.
All other tigers have yellow eyes.

If Tammy’s baby tiger is a real one what will Tammy do when it gets big?
Where will she keep it?
What will she feed it?
How will she exercise it?

Do you know something?
My Mum saw Tammy’s Mum in a shop on Saturday.
Tammy’s Mum was looking at some soft toys.
There were monkeys, bears, lions..... and there were tigers too.

Do you think Tammy’s tiger is real?

Questions.
1. Tammy says she has a __ __ __ baby tiger.
2. Tammy’s tiger might be a __ __ __ __ toy.
